

LESSON PLAN 2

WORK ETHICS

ABOUT THE LESSON PLAN

DURATION: 1 hour

MATERIAL REQUIRED:

- Handout 2.1
- Handout 2.2
- Handout 2.3

OBJECTIVES:

To develop good understanding of what is meant by 'work ethics' and why having good work ethics can help learners to grow in a job.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Understanding of good 'work ethics'.
- What aspects contribute to good work ethics.
- How to demonstrate good work ethics.
- How to improve work ethics.

LEARNING CONTENT

Finding employment can be a tough ride but understanding how to keep that employment is even more important.

Simple understanding of work ethic can help you easily transition and grow in a job.

Work ethic is an attitude of determination and dedication toward one's job. Those with a strong work ethic place a high value on their professional success. They exhibit moral principles that make them outstanding employees in any position. If you have a strong work ethic, you believe in the importance of your job and typically feel that hard work is essential to maintaining a strong character.

Handout 2.1

Individuals with a strong work ethics demonstrate particular set of values and behaviours. These characteristics make them stand out and they go a long-way.

Laminate page 1 of handout 2.1. Cut out each of the words and discuss with learners. Detailed explanation can be found on page 2 and 3 of handout 2.1.

- Reliability
- Dedication
- Discipline
- Productivity
- Cooperation

- Integrity
- Responsibility
- Professionalism

Handout 2.2

Carry out brainstorming exercise in handout 2.2. Place the words - How do you demonstrate good work ethics in a middle of a screen on a board or piece of paper. Get the learners to suggest some ideas. If the learners get stuck, use explains in handout 2.1.

Handout 3.3

Work through handout 2.3. Ask learners to add some of their own ideas.

TIPS FOR FURTHER READING

N/A

HANDOUTS

- Handout 2.1
- Handout 2.2
- Handout 2.3